

The Section of Emergency Medicine at Baylor College of Medicine

BCM

Announcing a new Residency Program in Emergency Medicine!

Our mission is to provide excellence in emergency medicine education, research, and medical service to our patients and our community.

Highlights

- ★ Approximately 100,000 patient visits per year
- ★ 650 bed Level 1 trauma center
- ★ 80 bed emergency department with dedicated orthopedic, dental, and ophthalmology treatment rooms
- ★ 5 resuscitation rooms for high acuity medical and trauma patients
- ★ Top 20 medical school
- ★ Excellent pediatric training at Texas Children's Hospital with over 80,000 visits per year
- ★ 30+ EM trained faculty including pediatric emergency medicine
- ★ EMS and Administrative fellowships available with plans to develop Ultrasound, Education, and Research Fellowships

Research

- Traumatic brain and cervical spine injury
- HIV surveillance and early treatment
- Post-cardiac arrest hypothermia treatment
- Emergency public health and disaster management
- Patient safety and medical error reduction
- Diabetes and hypertensive emergencies
- DVT prophylaxis registry
- Medical student and resident education

Curriculum

PGY 1

- EM* - 6 months
- MICU - 1 month
- CICU - 1 month
- SICU - 1 month
- Anesthesia - 1 month
- Ob/gyn - 1 month
- Medicine - 1 month

PGY 3

- EM* - 8 months
- Peds EM - 1 month
- Admin - 1 month
- Research - 1 month
- Elective - 1 month

PGY 2

- EM* - 5 months
- Peds EM - 1 month
- NICU - 1 month
- PICU - 1 month
- SICU - 1 month
- EMS - 1 month
- Research - 1 month
- Elective - 1 month

* EM months at main site integrate pediatric EM and ultrasound shifts

 Rotations at Texas Children's Hospital

Salary and Benefits

- PGY 1 - 44,302
- PGY 2 - 45,961
- PGY 3 - 47,205
- ★ 240-sq. ft. resident lounge
- ★ 42-52 clinical hours per week
- ★ 3 weeks of vacation and 1 week for CME
- ★ Memberships to ACEP, TCEP, SAEM, and EMRA
- ★ Health and dental insurance

Houston

- ★ 4th largest city in the country
- ★ Diverse, cultural city
- ★ Science and art museums in close proximity to medical center
- ★ Professional sports - Houston Rockets, Texans, Astros
- ★ Warm climate
- ★ Low cost of living

Contacts

For more information, please call 713-873-7045 or email Dr. Kapur at kapur@bcm.edu